The costume of the various attendants, the fashion of the furniture, the taste and form of the silver dishes, and the style of the apartments afford a complete notion of the manner of living in the great mansions nearly two hundred years ago. In the back-ground, are groups of spectators beholding the royal repast, who are prevented, by the yeomen of the guard, with their partisans crossed, from advancing further into the room than the prescribed spot allotted for the gratification of public curiosity. Queen Elizabeth, in a fantastic habit, something...
