Excerpt: . and Gowanhill tutor. This was considered the best part of the fun. They were convulsed with laughter at the awkward manner in which Adam hurled his missiles. Each time, he was growing wider and wider of the mark. At last he jumped down from the embankment and got into closer quarters, but still Liz was having the best of it. She pelted him right and left--he never once succeeding in his aim. They were now very close to each other. At length Liz lifted a handful of soft wet moss, and with unerring accuracy sent it full bang. It hit him on the right cheek, leaving him the most begrimed looking object imaginable. Adam now beat as hasty a retreat as possible, leaving Liz mistress of the situation. That was rale ill-dune o ye, Liz, said Peggie, much ashamed, and feeling that her...
