They decide to explore the house to see for themselves what all the fuss is about. As soon as they approach the house, they become aware of a menacing presence. Their plan was to spend the entire night in the house, but with each passing moment the house slowly comes alive as a cold terror creeps in. Will they make it through the night? There is nothing better than a good ghost story about a spooky night in a haunted house. This short read is just right for reading while you re taking a coffee break or a quick lunch break.
